The Project Development Board for the Grayson County Judicial Building met for their special called meeting on October 24, at 9:00 am in the Circuit Court Room of the judicial building.

Members present were Grayson County Judge Executive Gary Logsdon, Grayson County Circuit Clerk Elois Downs, Sixth District Magistrate Curtis Wells, County Attorney Tom Goff, Patrick Yewell (designee for Melinda Wheeler), Circuit Judge Sam Monarch, also attending was James Bauman A.O.C..

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Gary Logsdon and an agenda was presented. A motion was made to accept the agenda by Curtis Wells second by Tom Goff, motion passed.

At this time presentations were made by five architectural firms, including Brandstetter Carroll, CMW, JRA, KDZ, and Skinner Groves. Each firm was given thirty minutes to present their thoughts and ideas about how they would design and develop the building if they were hired as the Architect. After the presentations were completed the PDB discussed each firm and made the decision to hire the JRA Architectural firm. Judge Logsdon will send a letter to each group informing them of the decision. Being no further business, a motion was made by Tom Goff and seconded by Curtis Wells to adjourn, motion passed.
